Check if the following is applicable:

☐ I am a person with a disability

A disability means a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; a record of such impairment; or being regarded as having such an impairment. ("Major Life Activities" includes but is not limited to functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working). Information on disability is maintained by MassDEP's Director of Diversity and Civil Rights.
